The Hamilton-Jacobi formalism of constrained systems is used to study Siegel superparticle moving in $\mathbb{R}^{4|4}$ flat superspace. The equations of motion for a singular system are obtained as total differential equations in many variables. These equations of motion are in exact agreement with those obtained by Dirac's method.